

Shard Market Buzz

News From Bright Hollow

Bright Hollow gains "cluster" status as Circle for the "Viscerine" civ located. Hostility prevents explorer scouts, but "safety of the Outpost has been dramatically increased".

Rumors the Red Lake outbreak were the machinations of the Profane Grumach Ascended that plagues Bright Hollow! The Silver Sanctuary continues its study to understand the tool of our enemies.

Residents continue to be advised to "trust but verify" the identity and mental well-being of all acquaintances who have spent time beyond the Bright Hollow Circle.

Our hearts go out to those from and who have family from Red Lake. The Shard Market is accepting any and all donations as continued aid and support is provided to those in need.
- The Crimson Mane

Notice:
All scheduled Shard Market parties hosted by Chad Kasta have been canceled, effective immediately.

Order of the Inkwell has revised an out of date ritual to create Arena of Challenge!

Heart Warming Story

Missing persons reunited with their families after being held captive by a metaphorical "under[ground] giant flipper-handed big mouth emotion eating monster"!

*Trending!
Recent pop-up booth "Squab-Kebab" has folks lining up for hours to get a bite!*

News From Tin Tor'An

Charter of Parellel Authority proceeding at breakneck pace (for TES politics that is!)

New Circle discovery! Credited to Illiam Steadman and the Daybreak Collective, scholars eagerly await reports of first time opening post Heironymous Locke - of the Explorer's Guild - Circle activation.

The memorial held for Duncan Barclay, devout of Elya, who lost his Final Gift at the hands of the Profane Zahar Ascended. Lord Lucio Peer of the 6th cites "the service was heartfelt, an attempted seance performed to say goodbye." Speculations from this comment as it implies no Gravekeeper was present!

Glasshelm family refuses to comment on rumors of missing royal family members